* Please note that electricity prices are traded daily on the stock exchange and, like fuel prices, are variable. The specified consumption-based electricity prices and overstay fees are the currently applicable prices in Hungary. These are not fixed per tariff for the term of the contract. The electricity price and overstay fee components apply individually to each charging session. The consumption-based electricity prices and applicable overstay fees for the Flex tariff and when charging abroad vary according to charging station. The applicable electricity prices and overstay fees can be viewed in the CHARGE&FUEL App before starting each charging session.
